REVIVAL AT THE FRANKLIN-ST. M. E. CHURCH.

The services at the Franklin-st. Methodist Episcopal Church were attended by crowded congregations on Sunday. The day was devoted chiefly to singing, praise, prayer and testimonies, the latter being given by the hundreds. Many who gave their testimony did so amid sobs of joy, and some were induced to shout in true old-time Methodist fashion. The entire congregation was invited to remain to dinner and to tea, which were served in the basement of the church. The Franklin-st. Church, originally started as a mission, is prospering. The Sunday-school numbers nearly 300 children.

MATAWAN.—Simon Holzman, a Jewish peddler on his way through Reeveytown, stopped at the house of one Reevey. He expressed a wish to go to Eatontown and asked Reevey to show him the way. This he consented to do. They started out together, taking a short cut through the woods. This was the last seen of the meu until the peddler dragged dimself out of the woods about half an hour after they had entered it, with his head all cut and bruises all over his face and body. He said that after Reevey got him into the woods, be attacked him and battered his head in the frozen ground, after which he beat him, and then he became frightened and ran away. When he got a distance off he pulled a revolver out of his pocket and shot at him. Reevey insists that the peddler attacked him first and he only acted in self-defence. Reevey was arrested and lodged in the lock-up at Red Bank until yesterday, when he was taken to the county jail at Freehold. Holzman lies in a critical condition at Lufbarrow's Hotel at Eatontown.

A Great Remedy

"Eight months ago a patient, whose family physician I had been for seven years, tried Hood's sarsaparilla. The result was truly wonderful. From a pale, emaciated dyspeptic, three months' use of Hood's Sarsaparilla changed into a picture of perfect health. In the future I shall regard it as a duty to humanity to prescribe Hood's Sarsaparilla. Had I time I could cite numerous cases."—[R. J. HALLAREN, M. D., Nashua,

HOSPITAL SATURDAY, December 29th HOSPITAL SUNDAY, December 30th.

"The objects of this Association are to draw out benevolent gifts for Hospital purposes, by bringing the claims of these charities simultaneously before the public; to stimulate and foster the giving by personal donations and church collections on an experiment of an institutions as the donor or donors may choose to assist, and to provide for obtaining and distributing the gifts of those who sympathize with the general object of Hospital charity, without having interest in any special institution." Article I reports of the Hospitals published herewith show that for the year ending September 30, 1883, 10,442 patients have been treated at a cost to the hospitals of $509,978.80. Deducting from this expenditure the sums received as income from threated funds, allowed the amount received from paying patients, it is seen that at the present time these institutions depend for the large sum of $263,492.40 on annual gifts and contributions from the public.

Is the most virulent form of blood-poisoning. Less speedily fatal, but not less certainly so, is the viriation of the blood of which the first symptoms are Pimples, Sties, Bolls, and Cutaneous Eruptions. When the tain of Scrofula gives warning of its presence by such indications, warning of its presence by such indications, no time should be lost in using AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, the only perfect and reli-able medicine for the purification of the

SCROFULA

Is a foul corruption in the blood that rots out all the machinery of life. Nothing will eradicate it from the system and prevent its transmission to offspring but AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. This preparation is also the only one that will cleanse the blood of Mercurial poison and the taint of Contagious Diseases, Impovershed blood is productive of

A wretched condition indicated by Pallid Skin, Flaccid Muscles, Shattered Nerves, and Melancholy. Its first symptoms are Weakness, Languor, Loss of Nerve Force, and Mental Dejection. Its course, unchecked, leads inevitably to insanity or death. Women frequently suffer from it. The only medicine that, while purifying the blood, enriches it with new vitality, and invigorates the whole system, is
